

Consensus Statement of Privacy

N.J.L. & Time Bernasconi- 09040 Sardinia (ITALY) - the processor, ensures compliance with the rules on personal data protection and, therefore, provides the following information about the processing of data communicated or collected in the course of navigation on this site.

1. Purpose of the treatment.

The personal information requested is collected and used for the following purposes:

- a. to carry out activities related to the client according to contractual agreements.
- b. for administrative purposes and for the fulfillment of legal obligations such as those in accounting, tax, or to give course to requests of the court;
- c. in the presence of specific consent, to send periodic e-mails, newsletters and promotional materials;
- d. for sale to other companies of their personal data for marketing purposes.

2. Nature of the provision

The provision of data to the objective set out in points a), b) and d) is optional, but refusal will make it impossible for NJL & Time to act on their contractual commitments.

The provision of data to the purpose referred to in subparagraph c) is optional and their use is subject to the release of an explicit consensus. Any refusal to provide consent does not produce another effect.

3. Method of treatment

The data collected will be processed using electronic or automated, computer and data, or by manual processing strictly related to the purposes for which the personal data were collected, however, to ensure in any case the safety of the same .

4. Officers, responsible and reporting

The processing of data is performed by NJL & Time for that purpose appointed to data processing. The data collected, if necessary or instrumental to the execution of the stated purposes, can be handled by third parties appointed external managers of the processing, or, as appropriate, communicated to them as independent data, namely:

- Companies that are part of our group of companies for the purposes specified in paragraph 1 letter. a), b) and d);
- Individuals, companies, associations or professional practices that carry out assistance and consultancy to our Company, for the purposes of paragraph 1 letter. b);
- Companies, organizations, associations that provide services connected and instrumental to the execution of the above purposes (service analysis and market research, management of credit card payments, maintenance of computer systems).

5. Rights of the data

At all times you can object to the processing or request the cancellation, modification or updating of all personal information in our possession, by sending an email to: abuso-email@checkabuse.org